ELEVEN NURSES ARE GRADUATED

Diplomas and pins were presented to the eleven graduating St. Mary's Hospital nurses during ceremonies held in the Victory Theatre on Sunday evening.

The nurses, who carried bouquets of red roses, were the following: Bernice Langman, Eunice Desjardins, Doris Olson, Noreen Kirwin, Carmele Castonguay, Mary Whalen, Lois Clarke, Mary McCafferty, Lois Montgomery, Mary Wilson and Olin Rochefort.

Flowers embellished the entire stage.

Earle Barkwell congratulated the nurses and wished them every success, adding that they certainly would help alleviate the great shortage of nurses in Canada.

Rev. Fr. Brunette, of St. Anthony's parish, congratulated the nurses in French.

Dr. W. M. Mustard, of First United Church, also spoke to the nurses, the thirteenth occasion on which he had been present at the graduation of the nurses of St. Mary's hospital. He, too, stressed the great need of nurses at present.

Dr. Sam Jessel, chairman of the medical association, welcomed the nurses into the medical world.

Gregory Evans, master of ceremonies, congratulated the nurses, and wished them all success.

Then the awards were presented.

St. Mary's Alumnae Scholarship for the highest standard; to Noreen Kirwin, presented by Mrs. Bowker.

J. J. Evans Award: to Bernice Langman, by Rev. J. Callaghan.

St. Mary's Auxiliary Prize: to Mary Mary Whalen, by Mrs. C. McCann.

Father Callaghan read the Florence Nightingale pledge to the girls who held lighted white candles.

Bernice Langman read a short valedictory speech; and Moira Larmer accepted the torch.

Leo Barrette sang an Irish ditty for Rev. Sister Fidelis who is leaving for Ireland in a few days. She will also visit Rome.

Mrs. Laidlaw: President

Mrs. G. R. Laidlaw of Cochrane has been elected president of the Woman's Missionary Society, Cochrane Presbyterial.

The annual meeting was held in First United Church on Wednesday, May 21 and 22 with the President, Mrs. G. R. Laidlaw of Cochrane presiding at all sessions. Miss Oon Kim Speaks

Special guests were Mrs. J. A. Murray and Miss Yung Oon Kim. Mrs. Murray conducted a Workshop for leaders in Mountjoy Church on Wednesday evening.

Miss Kim, a native Korean, was the guest speaker. She told of the forty years domination of her country by the Japanese and the sense of relief experienced by her people when liberation came in 1945. Since then her country is divided into two sections—the Communist dominated north and the Republic in the south and told of the terrible confusion caused by Refugees flocking to the south for food and religious freedom. These refugees are from China and north Korea and owing to their numbers are causing great shortage of food and clothing.

Miss Kim spoke of 700 people living in army tents used for shelter and in the overcrowding there was much sickness. She paid tribute to the work of church missionaries who are doing splendid work in aiding these people and at this point said she would like to take the opportunity to express the gratitude of her people to Canadians for their generous gift of clothing.

She is a scholarship student of the W.M.S. taking a two year course at the United Church Training School. On completion of this she will return to her own ountry as a teaher at Ewah College.

The worship servies were in charge of Miss M. Nettle and Mountjoy C.G.I.T., Schumacher Mission Band visited and sang for the gathering under the leadership of Mrs. D. Fraser.

Music, Books, Greetings

Mrs. A. A. Rose discussed advance in organization in this area.

Miss Mary Huckerby was guest soloist accompanied by Mrs. P. H. Carson.

Meals were served by Fireside Club and W. A. of First United Church.

Greetings from First United Church were brought by Mrs. A. Jackson; from Presbytery by Rev. E. Gilmore Smith; and were responded to by Mrs. J. Moore of Matheson at the Wednesday evening meal.

Books were reviewed by Mrs. R. Milne and types of literature for New Canadians in their own language were displayed by Miss Gregg.

Reports of W.M.S. Toronto Conference were given by Mrs. R. Milne and Mrs. J. Moore who were delegates recently at this conference.

The closing session Thursday afternoon was largely given to the commemoration of the Twenty-Fifth anniversary of the United Church. During this the minutes of the first meeting of Cochrane Presbyterial were read. The organization having been formed November 3, 1925, with the Rev. Mrs. J. D. Parks as first president.

Mrs. R. Milne presented the report of the nominating committee and the Rev. W. M. Mustard, D.D., installed the officers. The Wednesday and Thursday sessions were closed with prayer by Rev. Mrs. W. M. Mustard and Rev. Mrs. A. Rose.

Rev. Mrs. C. Plaskett, for the Courtesy Committee, thanked all those responsible for the success of the gathering.

Merchants Display

The Horticultural Society held a meeting in the Town Hall to plan for their annual Horticultural Show which will be held in the McIntyre Arena.

Plans are being made for a merchants display to be in the McIntyre Auditorium similar to the set up of last year. It was decided entries for the baking class would be open until Monday September 4th at 3 p.m.

August 1st will be the deadline for entries for garden competitions. The reason for this the officials say is to allow judging to take place before there is any danger of frost.

Prizes will be given this year for beds of hybrid Roses. Officials are requesting that all rose growers notify the Society early, so that roses may be judged as soon as they are at their best.

Three prizes will be also given for the best essays entered, and the subject will be, "Love our Wild Flowers.' The winning entries will be sent to the Ontario Horticultural Society where they compete with entries from all over the Province.

Mr. J. Skelly was appointed district director for this year.
