Replicas Of British Crown Jewels Are On Display At Trade Fair

Replicas, faithful in every detail of the fabulously valuable British crown jewels, are on display at the Canadian International Trade Fair in Toronto. These copies, worth a fortune in themselves, are insured for $8,000 and are featured in the British jewelry and silverware council display at the Trade Fair. Above, left to right, Barry MacGregor, Jennifer Gay, chief warder of the Tower, Arthur Cook and Richard Dimbleby examine the jeweled sword of state. On table, in back row, are seen St. Edward's crown, imperial crown of state and imperial crown of India. On display in center row, left to right, are King orb, archbishop's cross and altar cross. In the front row is the royal sceptre.

Easy To Live With

Northern Star Branch of the Women's Institute held their regular meeting Friday June 2, at the home of Mrs. E. Cline, Shillington. There were 23 members and two guests present. The meeting was called to order with the singing of the Ode followed by the Mary Stewart Collect. Roll Call "What I like best about my husband" brought many humorous replies but fifty percent of the members said that "they liked him best because he was easy to live with." One of the husbands later remarked that he would have liked to have been listening in the attic.

Three members put $1.00 in the birthday box, having had a birthday during the month, and members sang "Happy Birthday." Plans were made for the District Annual being held this month at Holyre, a donation of $25.00 was voted for the Flood Relief of Manitoba, also committees were formed to take care of their Annual 1st of July picnic held at the school grounds.

The convenor of Citizenship and Education, Mrs. A. Brightwell introduced the guest speaker, Mr. J. H. Kennedy, Inspector of Public Schools for this district. Mr. Kennedy spoke on the "New Curriculum and the Government Grant system." The members thought they had learned much on these subjects, from this address.

The meeting closed in the usual custom after which a delicious lunch was served by the hostesses.

Shower - Theresa Shaetz

A miscellaneous shower was held for Miss Theresa Shaetz of Ramore at the home of Mrs. Leo Alarie, by Mrs. L. Millette and Mrs. A. Dupont. The bride-to-be entered the room to the strains of "Here comes the Bride" played by Norma Findlay at the piano.

The evening was spent playing games and a contest. The bride's scrap book was made by those present and created loads of fun. Later all those present signed the book. The bride received many beautiful and useful gifts.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostesses. The table looked lovely with a prettily decorated heart-shaped cake with a miniature bride and groom adorning the centre, which was cut by the bride.

Those attending were: Misses, Mina Humphries, Ada M. Chilvers, J. Hetherington, E. Gordon, L. Dupont, P. Gauthier, M. Weir, L. Shaetz, N. Findlay, Mrs. L. H. Hanlan, Mrs. A. Dupont, Mrs. F. Training Children

At the recent meeting of the Schu- macher Home and School Association Mrs. A. Doige gave a report on the number of pamphlets read by the members. These pamphlets were purchased by the Association for the benefit of its members and deals with various problems with which the parents come in contact in the training of the child in its various stages. Twenty pamphlets in all were purchased and of these sixteen have been read and passed from member to member. A number of these pamphlets have been written by the great educationist physico- logist, Dr. S. R. Laycock, who will visit this district on June 8. We wish to remind the parents who are in- terested in these matters if they wish to read these pamphlets they may do so by contacting Mrs. A. Doige, Fourth Avenue, Schumacher.

Gee, Nice Mitts, Eh?

Four young boys stood in front of the town hall. They each had a new baseball glove.

"Gee, nice mitts, eh?"

"Hey, let me take the bat..."

The mitts and gloves are of fine quality, expensive, oiled, and upon the back of each one is painted "TCAC".

"Yeah, look at this bat, too: it's a good bat."

How long are you allowed to keep these mitts-overnight?

At that moment Tim Sturgeon emerged from the town hall. One of the boys noticed and called, "How long can we keep these, Mr. Stur- geon?"

"Just till you finish your game," Mr. Sturgeon said, "then take them back to the office for the next team."
