HONNEUR A UN DES NOTRES:

Le Colonel J. G. G. Charlebois, anciennement de Timmins, est nommé attaché militaire à Paris, France.

Né à Maniwaki, Québec, Colonel Charlebois est venu résider à Timmins en 1912. Il fit ses premières études à l'école St. Antoine et gradua avec son Bachelier des Arts de l'Université d'Ottawa. Après ses études au College of Education de Toronto il enseigna au Timmins High and Vocational School pendant trois ans.

En 1935, Col. Charlebois joignit l'armée canadienne avec le rang de lieutenant dans le régiment Royal 22ième. Sa carrière militaire le conduisit dans différentes parties du monde. En 1945, il servit avec les forces armées à Guadalcanal et dans l'invasion d'Okinawa.

A son retour au Canada, Col. Charlebois était sur le personnel du National Defence College à Kingston. Il laisse maintenant son poste de directeur de l'infanterie pour devenir attaché militaire en France.

Col. Charlebois est le fils de M. et Mme H. Charlebois, 112 rue Cedar nord.

Railways Trying To Recover Lost Passenger Business

Canadian railways and airlines are waging quite a fight these days for travel dollars. Railways are trying to win back the many passengers attracted away by the airlines during the last five years. Advertising and improved service are being emphasized in the railways' efforts. The duplex roomette car is one of their newest-type sleepers which is hoped to attract more travellers like Louise Nelson.

Sherbin, Mrs. Dee, Mrs. F. Corris, Mrs. E. Smith, Miss Ella MacKenzie, Mary McComach, Mr. J. Smith, (father of Mrs. E. Monaghan).

Mrs. T. Steepe, Mrs. D. Fraser, Mrs. J. Bagordo, Miss S. Monaghan, Mrs. Jean Mullins, Berbe Degraw, Diana Monaghan, Shirley Monaghan, the hostesses, Mrs. E. Monaghan and Mrs. D. McKenzie and the guest of honor, Helen Monaghan.

Those invited, but unable to attend, but sending a gift were Mrs. A. Fulton, Miss Effie Monaghan, Mrs. J. Ferguson, Miss Betty Murphy, Mrs. G. Robertson, Jr., Mrs. Angriam and Mrs. E. Chernesky.

Honor Mrs. Kent

A party was held at the home of Mrs. D. Fraser recently in honor of Mrs. J. Kent, who leaves this week for Toronto, and then sails to England, July 18.

Mrs. Fraser and Mrs. W. Rowe were hostesses for this occasion. The guests enjoyed a social evening, with Mrs. Kent playing several selections of music. A sing song was enjoyed by all present. On behalf of the ladies present Mrs. Fraser presented Mrs. Kent with a gift, also a gift for Barry and Marion Kent.

Mrs. Kent thanked the ladies, and said she would miss all her friends in Canada, and in the future she only hoped she would be able to visit with all her friends again.

Mrs. Fraser and Mrs. Rowe served lunch. Those attending the party were Mrs. F. Shippam, Mrs. Finchen, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. J. Matthew, Mrs. M. Babin, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. A. Olsen, Mrs. Hughes, and Mrs. W. Rowe, Mrs. D. Fraser, and the guest of honor, Mrs. J. Kent. Those contributing to the gift but unable to attend were Mrs. Dee, Mrs. A. Mair, Mrs. W. MacBain, Mrs. S. Jones.

MacGregor-Fregonese

A pretty wedding was solemnized June 30, in St. Alphonsus Church, Schumacher, when Inez Fregonese, daughter of L. Fregonese and the late Mrs. Fregonese of Schumacher was united in marriage to Ronald MacGregor, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. MacGregor, Rev. Father Francis Sowiński, officiated at the Nuptial Mass. The church was decorated with spring flowers and during the signing of the register, Mrs. J. Marshall played the organ while the junior choir sang under the direction of Betty Murphy.

Given in marriage by her father, L. Fregonese, the bride was radiant in a gown of white nylon organza with a net yoke caught at intervals with pearls. It featured a skirt which

Kent Mrs. H. Hestjansen, Mrs. G. Richardson, Mrs. E. Sayers, Mrs. J. O'Donnell, Mrs. D. Bennett, Mrs. June Huston, and Mrs. J. Huxley.
