The waterproofing of the school basement is complete! Hard to imagine that this is finally done. The contractor left the premises August 26th.

Council has approved our renovation request based on the heritage aspects only. We still need to complete our mechanical drawings and those are being done right now.

The Palermo Hall flag pole will be installed behind the schoolhouse. The Region of Halton will pay for the installation and the Town will own the pole. This flag pole is at least 98 years old and stood in front of the old Palermo Hall.

We have picked up 20 chairs from the old QE Park school and we will use them in the basement once it is renovated.

We have received the boards from the old Snider's school that have the circle painted on them with the school number. Unfortunately the middle board is missing so we hope to have an artist paint on an extra board we got to complete the middle of the circle. We will then frame them and hang them in the Palermo schoolhouse.

The Alchemy group of companies that is based in Mississauga but moving to Oakville in the new year has approached us about donating a sign. We are presently working out the details of the sign and preparing to write an application to the town for a sign permit- that of course will require council approval. We will keep you posted!

Trafalgar History Updates

Fire at Kaitting House- There was a fire set at the Kaitting House on Dundas just west of Sixth Line. There are only 3 exterior walls left standing. The interior is completely gone. The developer had requested permission in November to have this building designated to have it put on blocks and moved closer to Dundas to protect it from vandals. It is unfortunate that the Town could not have moved more quickly on this because I think it may have made all the difference. Mattamy was going to restore this home and donate it to the community. This is a huge loss for our Trafalgar heritage.

Hagar Hotel

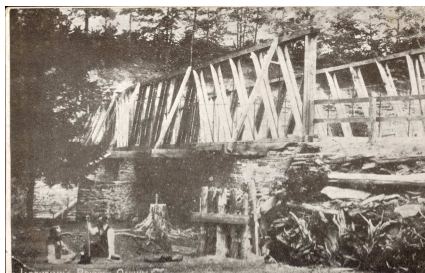

We have been informed by the Town of Oakville that the owner of this property can apply for demolition at any time. This is one of the most significant buildings in Palermo and the only building left that is connected to the Hagar family. This is also a great loss to heritage reservation.

Scanning Date this Summer

We had a successful scanning day with 9 people coming out. We don't have everything uploaded to the site yet but will get to that after the Fall Fair is done. We currently have a back log of about 200 photos to upload. Feel free to submit photos to us on a disk and we can have them uploaded to Oakville Images. The photos must be 600 DPI, colour, and saved as a TIFF file using the correct naming convention which is TTOI (TTOI for Trafalgar Township Oakville Images) and then the initials of your name and then the number of the photo starting with 001. Below are two of the photos we scanned.

Gail Cherrington brought this one of the Kaitting House which was later owned by the Kings and called Kingholm farm 1953

This is from Ross Wark's post card collection. This Bridge is called Jacquelyn's Bridge and the back of the card says it is one of the old time bridges outside Oakville town. Can anyone tell us where it was located and the reason for the name?

Research

We are still looking for volunteers who will work with Ross Wark to start cataloguing our archive materials. The upstairs boy's cloakroom is ready to go as our temporary archives for documents until after the renovations are complete.

Our Family Heritage Fair is on Saturday September 26th. From 10am to 4pm. If you are able to help us out as a volunteer let us know. We will have wood kits for the kids to build, a lunch BBQ, archive area, Ross Wark will have some of his Post Card collection, the Palermo blacksmith shop photos will be on display thanks to Lorna Bartman, and a Palermo Hall chair on display from Lois Dunnington. Joyce Burnell & Evelyn Bullied will be dressed on costume and will be happy to share early Trafalgar history with visitors. Halton Peel Genealogical Society will be out and able to help you with many of your local genealogy questions. Our archives will be open and we will be able to scan your photos. Our collection of early school books will be available for you to walk down memory lane as you remember your own school days.

We owe a great deal of thanks to Mathew Wilkinson for organizing our speaker's series this year. Once again he has arranged for an outstanding guest.

Inquiries

In our last newsletter we asked about the history of the Hornby Garage. Now we know some of you really do read the newsletter! We had a few people get back to us on this!

Here's what Irene Saunders wrote.... The wooden building that used to be Gordon Brigden's garage was originally a church. It was Farlton Methodist and was at the end of Anderson' lane on the 7th Line below Bailey's hill. (from taped conversation with Frank Chisholm, Feb. 28, 1994) This building was north of Steeles on Hornby Rd.

Bronte Creek Provincial Park is looking for information on the Breckon family to improve their tour of the Breckon home on the property. Please email michelle@tths.ca if you can help with this- or have information on any of the other houses in the park.

THE DRAFTED MEN

We give below the names of the 795 men drafted for the County of Halton. We do it to gratify the general wish of our subscribers, not that we think there is anything very serious in the matter. There is no immediate danger of their being called out to the frontier, as the Government had to reject offers from volunteers. If there be no war, the duties of the battalion now organized for three years will be very light.

They may or may not be called out for six days drill in a year, for which they will receive fifty cents a day. On the contrary, should trouble arise, they will be the first to be summoned to the "tented field." The number of battalions now called is 112, containing 89,000 of who Upper Canada furnished about 48,500.
