MONDAY 10

1887

I done up the chores this morning & took the children to school & took a piece of wood to Whitakers & a letter. I found out them & after dinner I got the tank from Marshall & drew four tanks of water from the pond.

TUESDAY 11

Susan & I started to Hamilton this morning about three o'clock & the wind was blowing hard & it was terrible cold, there was a small market, we got home about four o'clock, we had a very hard day of it.

WEDNESDAY 12,

It is a good bit milder today, I done up the chores & took the children to school & then I drew water the rest of the day, Whitakers & us were over to Marshall's this evening.

THURSDAY 13

1887

This has been a very cold day I was choring about this forenoon & took Walter & Edna to school & went for the mail & then went to Palmer's & got home at two o'clock. Margaret & Ruth were here this afternoon.

FRIDAY 14

It snowed & blowed most all last night & this morning the lanes & roads are full of snow I opened a road through our field & took the children to school it stormed most of the day, the snow is very deep.

SATURDAY 15

I done up the chores & then father & I finished cleaning up the grit & afternoon Walter & I got the bobs out & put the wagon box on them & drew up a little bit of straw. Marshall's were at Mother's tonight.
