

The Lefevres were away from Oakville many days at a time on business trips. Mr. Lefevre always told Dad that when they were away on business, let the boys (Alistair and myself) use the swimming pool and tennis court.

You can see by the pictures that we made good use of the pool and court.