

This 1 1/2 storey frame house stood near the road, just west of the present lane into John Irvine's lane way and in this house Jacob Brook kept hotel and catered to the stage coach travellers going along Dundas St. from Toronto to London.
A large driving shed at the rear was left open and a coach and team could easily enter.

By Nellie Van Sickle