VOL 2, No. 1.

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN TERRACE BAY

March 18th, 1947

SOMETHING NEW HAS BEEN ADDED

It's new, it's different, it's going to be colossal men. The Terrace Bay News is back on the news-stands again in it's first issue since Christmas. Our new offices, new staff and better printing methods, are bound to help us make a bigger and better paper. We have had several requests from our old readers for a renewal of this paper. We feel sure that we will be able to justify the faith you have in us.

It will be our job to cover all news of local interest, humorous or otherwise. This will be a means whereby you can keep up to date in Terrace Bay. We therefore pledge ourselves to print an issue every week, barring catastrophes.

The tempo in Terrace Bay has been so accelerated in the past few months that activities and interesting incidents are happening too fast to be covered by a few men. In other words we need more reporters. So come on gang pitch in.

We didn't get a chance to cover that story about Joe making seven straight passes with the bones in Bunkhouse 3 the other night. But if one of the boys who was on his knees talking to those dominoes had told us about it, we could have printed it. And it's the same with various other stories. But if you fellows (and girls too) will just take time to jot down the particulars and hand them to us in the Personnel Office or the Fraser-Brace Time Office at the Millsite, we'll appreciate it very much. So come on, join in the fun and pen us a line.

At the time of writing we sent Bud Fisk and Frank Grant, two ace reporters, down to the Williams residence to cover a story in the Townsite. They have been gone three hours now and still no sign of them. It must be a good story and no doubt the boys are having fun covering it.

We hold a regular meeting on Wednesday night at 7 p.m. in the Personnel Office to discuss the next issue. If you would care to assist us drop around some evening, join in the fun and see how easy it really is.

The following is a list of our staff at present. Any one of these men will gladly tell you all about our activities:

Fred Soughton - Administration (LongLac); Bob Sheppard - Editor (LongLac);
Jim Whyte (LongLac); Bud Fisk (North American); Frank Grant (North American);
Mert Maines (LongLac); Bill Jamieson (Fraser-Brace); Harry Haywood (Fraser-Brace);
Oswald Wisselmunk, Esquire the IIIrd.

So if you have any thing newsy don't keep it to yourself tell us about it or join our staff and write it yourself. Remember our meeting next Wednesday at 7 p.m. in the Personnel Office.
