

WELCOME TO TERRACE BAY

We wish to welcome the many families who have moved into Terrace Bay since the New Year. Among the ever increasing population of our small but thriving community we note:

Art & Mrs. Berezowski; Stan & Mrs. Butcher; Chas & Mrs. Evans; Bill & Mrs. Louk; Dave & Mrs. McDonald; George & Mrs. Reid; Doc & Mrs. Roberts; Ron & Mrs. Seed; Monty & Mrs. Paget; Arnold & Mrs. Mantere; and their families - in some cases.

Coming Attractions - Soon

Mrs. Dave Emerson and family; Mrs. Fred Carpenter; Mrs. Joe Heenan and 1947 style family; Mrs. Bob Schneble and Mrs. Gordon Stewart.

OATH OF INAUGURATION

We the undersigned do hereby swear - not when women are present of course and there are women present in the mess hall-mess hall, that's the place you haul yourself to three times a day and try to balance a couple of peas on your knife while dodging the next man's shoulder and elbow. Where were we? Oh yes - do hereby swear to tell the truth and nothing but the truth So help us - yes fellows help us to gather the news by telling one of our reporters any incident that you think is amusing or interesting as we need a lot of help to attain a newspaper of good reading. For instance it has come to our attention that a certain Romeo with a car is cutting quite a wide swath with the local Juliets. However the local policeman, taking the part of the protecting father is right on the job and curfew time comes early. (Got a spare car - Carmichael?) Lover's ~~love~~ in blossom - ah spring is here.

With Dave Woywoda on the fiddle and E. Boudreau on the guitar we have the makings of a good band when, I repeat when, a dance is organized here in Terrace Bay. These boys can really swing out a tune.

A replica of Al Jolsen in black face appeared in one of the bunkhouses when R. Duston missed the passenger from Jack Fish and had to ride back hobo style. His rendition of "Mammy" however was disappointing to Jolsen fans.

A customer in Terrace Bay angrily returned a can of beans to a store the other day. It seems that when he opened the beans he found a pencilled note inside reading gaily - "These beans were canned on V-J day!" Yippee!
