

For a long time the Isbesters, Kay and Jim, have made their nightly visit on foot to see the trains come in. We admire their loyalty, for there are few nights that these two aren't saluting the great iron horses as they thunder into Terrace Bay. But the few nights that were missed, due to rain, bothered Jim. The solution was to buy a car. So, from now on, the Isbesters will be featured nightly, rain or shine, in their Buick sedan at the station.

...

The structure erected at the north-east corner of the C.P.R. Station is the start of a trench that will be used to jack a passage beneath the tracks for the main pipe line from the lake to the millsite.