

NEENAH, WISCONSIN DISPATCH (Cont'd)

The wedding proceeded in grand style. Indications were that the groom was kissed almost as often as the bride while in the reception line, for afterwards, only a fractional square inch of Bob's countenance was left uncovered by lipstick.

After a wedding dinner in Oshkosh, a reception was held at the Jersild home in Neenah. It was here that the bridal couple made their escape from a crowd of well wishers and were last seen dashing through bushes and over fences to a near by car.

(We understand that a wedding trip was planned to Kenora, Ontario. The newlyweds will reside at Terrace Bay where Bob is employed in the LongLac Engineering Department. He is also Editor of "Terrace Bay News". Best wishes to the newlyweds. - Editor-in-chief.)

"COMETS" CONTINUE WINNING STREAK (by Ted McDonald)

It was difficult to select stars last Sunday night, as the Terrace Bay "Comets" shut-out Hydro #3 to the tune of 7 - 0 behind the superb hurling of Paul Cybulka. "Comets" started the game with a four run barrage in the first inning and were never threatened as Hydro batters failed to solve Paul's offerings and did not get a man past second until the last inning. The Gow brothers, Don and Doug, played fine ball, as did Ed Brady. The "Comets" seem to improve every time out and from this writer's viewpoint, appear to be the team to beat. The Hydro team are also a vastly improved lot and are now displaying a lot of what it takes, and should find themselves right in there by the time the season ends.
