Fri. & Sat. "NIGHT EDITOR"
Oct. 10 & 11 With William Gargan, Janis Carter and Jeff Donnell.

Here is drama! They all knew the killer but nobody would talk! Her lips were sealed by a kiss. He was afraid of scandal. Police Lieut. Tony Cochrane, happily married to Martha, meets Jill, a wealthy society girl, also married. Tony and Jill witness a brutal murder while they are together and he is unable to reveal his knowledge to the police because of a possible scandal. But when an innocent man is to die for the slaying, he admits his presence and solves the case.
Added: "BEER BARREL POLECATS" with the three stooges.

Sunday EDUCATIONAL FILMS (no admission charge)
October 12 Through the courtesy of the Thunder Bay Film Library, the following National Film Board films will be shown.

"RIVER OF CANADA" A beautiful coloured film depicting industrial activity and scenic beauty along Canada's great river highway, the mighty St. Lawrence. As the camera moves down the river from Lake Ontario to the Atlantic, we see the Thousand Islands, ablaze with autumn colours, and visit historic sites in Kingston, Montreal and other centres along the shore.

"CANADIAN WHEAT STORY" This film follows a Canadian wheat harvest from the prairies to city bakeshops. Transportation of the grain to lake-head elevators and eastward on lake freighters is shown. Shots of milling are also included.

"CORVETTE P.A." and a musical film showing the great TOSCININI conducting will also be shown.

Mon. & Tues. A DOUBLE FEATURE
Oct. 13 & 14 "FREDDIE STEPS OUT"
With Freddie Stewart, June Preisser, Ann Rooney, Jackie Moran, Charlie Barnet and his orchestra, Chuy Reyes and his orchestra.

A delightfully hilarious musical that never lets up in laughs since situations become increasingly riotous as the story proceeds. It's in the groove!
