

GOOD HOUSEKEEPING AROUND THE JOB

Every once in a while ~~a lost time accident occurs~~ which brings home the need for further emphasis on GOOD HOUSEKEEPING AROUND THE JOB. Cleaning up is, or should be, part of the job. This is particularly true around a big construction project.

Protruding nails are the cause of many painful accidents and if everyone would take responsibility for the kind of Good Housekeeping that would eliminate the nail hazard, such accidents could be readily eliminated. Next time we see a protruding nail any place where it might cause an injury, let's take a moment to remove it or bend it over. NAILS CAN BE KILLERS. Let's not forget that fact. If an injury from a nail does occur, the injury should be attended to at once at the Millsite First Aid Post or the Terrace Bay Hospital in the Lower Camp as ALL INJURIES, NO MATTER HOW MINOR, SHOULD BE REPORTED AT ONCE.

CURLING NEWS

One more week of play will bring to a conclusion the 2nd half of the Hudson's Bay Grand Challenge Draw in which 29 rinks are involved.

Last Sunday afternoon, Ernie Height emerged as the victor from the 4-way deadlock which had engulfed Section 4 of Series #1. Congratulations Ernie!

Come next Saturday afternoon, two Terrace Bay Ladies' rinks will meet two Schreiber Ladies' Rinks, in Schreiber.

During the coming week-end Terrace Bay will play host to 4 rinks from the LongLac Curling Club at LongLac, Ontario, where our Woodland's Dept. headquarters are located. In view of this visit, it has been decided by the Curling Club Executive, that games scheduled for Saturday night in the regular draw will be played on Sunday afternoon at 1:00 p.m. and 3:00 p.m. in the same order and on the same ice as called for Saturday night.

Last week end, two rinks from Terrace Bay were royally entertained at LongLac, Ontario by the LongLac Curling Club. Rupe Clowes' rink included Gordon Dodge, Al McColl and Paul Boudreau. On Jack Wellings' rink were Al Lawson, Bill Lowe and Fred Soughton.

Saturday evening Jack Wellings was defeated by Don Finlayson 10 - 8. Don's rink included Al Buell, Bill Lopenen and Glen Munro. The other Terrace Bay rink skipped by Rupe Clowes went down to defeat 14 - 8 at the hands of Chas. Smith, Ken Switzer, Gord Murdock and Jim Boultee.

Sunday mornings games saw Alex Galloway, Walter Mills, Glen Bradley and Dick Green edge Jack Wellings by a 7 - 6 count while Rupe Clowes' rink skipped by Gordon Dodge took a 7 - 4 loss administered by Murray Conklin, Jack Brown, Tom Mikoski and Ralph Sexsmith. The LongLac boys can certainly curl as well as entertain.

On Sunday evening during a stop-over due to car trouble a rink including Sadie Galloway Lila Davis, Helen Mawn and Janet Gemmell gave Jack Wellings' aggregation an anxious time until the 6th end of a 10 end game, but the boys finally pulled the game out of the fire with a 11 - 6 victory, much to their relief.
