

TERRACE BAY NEWS

Vol. 3 No. 16

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN TERRACE BAY

April 22, 1948.

CURLING SEASON ENDS WITH ANNUAL BANQUET

Terrace Bay's first curling season is now history, but the memory will linger long with those who earned the right to be called "charter members," through their association with the club during its first year of operation. The club was officially organized last November and since then a two-sheet rink with club room was voluntarily constructed and in all, 29 teams involving 116 players participated.

The season ended with a banquet held in the Recreation Hall on Thursday, April 15th. Following the dinner, a sing-song was led by Paul Boudreau after which President Rune Ostling introduced out of town guests. Doug Skinner, President of the Marathon Curling Club spoke briefly as did Fred Humunick of Northern Engineering Co., Port Arthur. Long-Lac Pulp and Paper Company officials who were called upon included H. S. Craig, General Manager, and Andreas Christensen, Mill Manager.

J. B. Corke, Manager of the Marathon branch of Chapple's Limited, announced on behalf of John Chapple and the management of Chapple's Limited that their organization stood ready to donate a North Shore Curling Trophy for annual competition in this district if arrangements for a bonspiel could be worked out. Ken Switzer extended to those present greetings from the curling club at LongLac, Ontario.

L. N. Martin, Hudson's Bay Co. manager at Terrace Bay, then presented the Hudson's Bay Curling Trophy to the Terrace Bay Club and in turn to the winner of the event, Ernie Schmitt. Ernie and his team, Walt Lemiski, Marv. Lemon and Don Brand, received lamps and playing cards as prizes donated by Hudson's Bay Co. Other prizes in the same event were as follows: blankets donated by Lakehead Motors to Rune Ostling, Ioleen Ostling, and Dick Lumbers; two coffee silex and two electric toasters donated by Mahon Electric to the team skipped by Kay Isbester including Monty Paget, Dick Hupp and Arnold Hamilton; prizes for fourth spot - figurines from Chapple's Limited, went to Al Lawson's rink on which Kathy Tracey, Al Crockford and Mrs. Cy Camplong were regular members.

George Coulter, branch manager of the Imperial Bank at Terrace Bay, presented the Imperial Bank Trophy to winners of the Imperial Bank Bonspiel. The winning rink skipped by Al McColl included Bill Lowe, Ab Keehn and Paul Boudreau. Each member of the team was presented with an electric iron through the courtesy of Cochrane and Dunlop Hardware. Second prizes, fruit juicers donated by Northern Engineering, went to Al Lawson's rink (Kathy Tracey, Al Crockford and Mrs. Cy Camplong). Prizes for the third spot which were won by Ogilvie Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Jones and Steve Pastor were two electric toasters and two electric irons donated by New Idea Sheet Metal. In fourth position was Ruth Bangartt's rink which included Dr. and Mrs. Lel Roberts and John Jeanneret. They received serving trays through the courtesy of Marshall Wells.

The Curling Club would like to take this opportunity of thanking all donors of trophies and prizes for their generosity.

Appreciation is also expressed to all who contributed to the success of the banquet including Dominion Catering Co., and those responsible for decorations, -Ruth Bangartt, Peggy Miller, Jack Wellings and Jim Nicholson. Thanks to Ev Reid for her work on menu cards.

Head table guests at the banquet included: Mr. and Mrs. R. Ostling, H. S. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Andreas Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Corke, L. N. Martin, Miss Margaret Kiff and George Coulter.