"JIGGS" IS HOME AGAIN Back on April 22nd about 9:30 p.m. a 14 year old Toy Boston Bull Terrier strayed from the home of its owners Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Shemanski - Hudson Drive. For a number of days, townsites residents, knowing of the dog's disappearance, kept an eye open for "Jiggs" who was strictly a home-loving dog, not used to the rigors of outdoor life. By the time a week had passed everyone had just about given up hope of ever seeing the dog again alive.

Last Saturday the fishing season officially opened. Shortly after dinner two fishing enthusiasts, brothers Paul and Hubert Boudreau, set out for a cove on the shore of Lake Superior hoping to return with a speckled beauty or two. While fishing in one of their "favourite spots" they were attracted by an animal atop a rocky cliff forty to fifty feet above them. There was "Jiggs". Not accustomed to the great outdoors, he had apparently become lost and for nine days had wandered about the bush subsisting on vegetation.

We can assure everyone that the homecoming was a happy one.
