

AROUND THE BALL FIELD

Terrace Bay Comets Split Double-Header With Red Rock

In a softball double-header played last Sunday against

Red Rock, Terrace Bay Comets split the results of the two 9-inning encounters with a 6-3 victory in the afternoon game, while bowing out on the short end of a 17-12 count in the twilight fixture. The games were played on the local ball field, with more than 800 spectators witnessing the two games.

The Red Rock aggregation, which included a number of supporters, journeyed to Terrace Bay in cars on Sunday morning and returned following the evening game.

Plans for return games at Red Rock are being made, with the date to be announced later.

Line-ups: Red Rock - Mike Skbar, H. Tretiak, Bill Skbar, J. Gothrie, C. McNeil, Art Jones, F. McCabe, F. Kotzma, T. White, G. Wiggins
Terrace Bay Comets - Joe Heenan, Pete Heintskill, Ed Brady, John Cavanaugh, George Davis, Murph Murriett, Slim Simmer, Paul Boudreau, Don Gow, J. Tysarski

House of Cavanaugh vs All Star Girls -- Sunday

Everybody at Terrace Bay is talking about the exhibition game scheduled for next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. when the All Star Girls of Terrace Bay will meet "The House of Cavanaugh", an entire ball team comprised of members of the Cavanaugh family. Proceeds from the game will go into a fund to purchase "extras" for patients in the Terrace Bay Hospital.

It is reported that the Hudson's Bay Team which is scheduled to meet "The House of Cavanaugh" in the near future, will be out in full force at the game next Sunday in an effort to scout information which will assist them in planning what they hope will be a winning strategy for their meeting with the Cavanaugh clan.

Men's House League

By dropping an 8-2 decision with the league leading Hydro boys last Thursday night, Klondike Klubbers, fighting desperately for a playoff berth, almost eliminated their chances of gaining a spot which would permit them to compete for the Fraser-Brace Trophy. The best the Klubbers can hope for now is a tie for third spot and the mathematical odds are against them.

By whipping the Alkies 17-3 on Monday evening in the only other game played during the past week, Comets virtually clinched a playoff berth as they moved into a two-way tie for second spot with Whammies, although the Whammies have played one less game.

Men's House League Standings
(including game played August 9th)

	Played	Won	Lost	Tied	Points
Hydro	12	9	2	1	19
Whammies	11	8	3	0	16
Comets	12	8	4	0	16
Klubbers	12	5	6	0	10
Steam Fitters	11	3	8	0	6
Alkies	12	1	10	1	3

Recent Games

August 5th - Hydro 8 - Klubbers 2
August 9th - Comets 17 - Alkies 3

Games Coming Up - At Terrace Bay unless otherwise indicated. Games scheduled for 6:45 p.m.

Thursday - August 12th - Alkies vs. Hydro at Hydro. Umpires: John Medrea and man from Hydro.
Monday - August 16th - Comets vs. Steam Fitters. Umpires: Humphrey Duke and Red Coulson
Wednesday - August 18th - Klubbers vs. Whammies. Umpire: Pete Heintskill
Thursday - August 19th - Hydro vs. Whammies. Umpires: Jim Piette and Don Gow.