WHITE ELEPHANTS

Hold it folks! The White Elephant Hunt is on again. November isn't very far away - brr - and lots of white elephants are needed for the Ladies' Auxiliary Fall Bazaar. Don't get us wrong ... that's not all the ladies are planning for "The Bazaar", but more of that later. White Elephants can be left at 72 Laurier Avenue - or given to one of the Marsh boys.

TENNIS COURT CHATTER

Members of the Terrace Bay Tennis Club stand to derive considerable benefit from the instructions being given currently by Gordon Stewart and Pete Heintskill. The instructors in question are doing an excellent job of passing along the finer points of the game to less experienced players, and their efforts are sincerely appreciated by Club members.

Within the next day or so, information will be posted on the Tennis Court Bulletin Board related to the forthcoming Doubles Tennis Tournament.

NATIONAL FILM BOARD CREW AGAIN AT TERRACE BAY

During the next few days, persons associated with the Hydro and LongLac projects at Terrace Bay will again see a three man crew from the National Film Board taking "moving pictures" and "stills" of the two developments. The original crew visited here early in the summer. With the completion of the "shooting" this time, the movies will be released through the major news reel organizations in Canada, United States and elsewhere. The present crew consists of Nat Clavier and Wilfred Doucette (two of the original party) and Bob Campbell, a cameraman. We feel sure that everyone will again do their utmost to cooperate.

ANOTHER HONEST MAN

For the second week in a row, we are pleased to note in Terrace Bay News an incident which certainly bears reporting. On Tuesday evening in the Hudson's Bay Store, Metro Kawula came across a $100.00 American bill on a display counter while looking through a pile of sport shirts. Metro promptly turned the bill in to the store manager. Clerks were questioned and a description was given of an American visitor who had made a purchase at the particular counter earlier in the day. The Police Department at Terrace Bay was then notified and within a matter of minutes the American visitor was located and the bill returned to him.

The action of Metro Kawula in turning in the money is certainly to be admired and it prompts us to again note: "Who said there were no honest men left in the world?"
