LARGEST CIRCULATION IN TERRACE BAY

January 6, 1949.

SECOND CURLING SEASON UNDERWAY AT TERRACE BAY The current Curling Season got underway officially at Terrace Bay on Monday evening, January 3rd with a Novelty Bonspiel which will run through the better part of ten days. In all, twenty-four rinks are involved and with but a few minor changes, the rinks as now drawn will probably stay together throughout the regular season. Skips for the rinks are as follows: Bill Lowe, Bert Laundry, Terry Cochrane, Alfred McBride, Merrill Shewchuk, Mrs. Rune Ostling, Glen Lumbers, Thor Olsen, H. S. "Ham" Craig, Harold Thompson, Alex MacDonald, Mel Bamford, Gordon Dodge, Al McColl, Jack Wellings, Ruth Bangartt, Harold Marsh, Jack Johnston, Ernie Haight, Paul Boudreau, Doug Colquhoun, Jack Thompson and Jimmie Nicholson.

In addition to the 96 people playing on the 24 rinks there are 18 spares which brings the total membership of the Terrace Bay Curling Club to 114.

Curling facilities at Terrace Bay consist of a two sheet Curling Rink located in the Lower Camp at the west end of the Recreation Hall. The building which includes a heated waiting room with glass windows looking out on to the ice, was constructed for the most part by volunteer labour during the months of November and December in 1947. Material for the building was supplied by LongLac Pulp and Paper Company.
