CURLING CLUB NEWS As we go to press, the final games are being played in the second curling draw and based on play throughout the season, four teams will emerge from each of the three groups and the twelve teams will play-off for the Club Championship, with the winning team taking the Hudson's Bay Trophy and the Imperial Bank Trophy going to the runner-up.

All games which have not been played during the present draw must be played and the results handed to Gordon Dodge, the Club Secretary, by 6:00 p.m. on Saturday, March 5th, after which no credit will be allowed for any unplayed games. It is expected that some games for the Club Championship will get underway as early as next Sunday.

It has now been decided that all rinks not eligible for play in the Club Championship Draw will be grouped in a Consolation Draw with prizes for the two leading rinks.

An Open Competition is also planned and any skip may enter the rink of his choice in this draw. No entry fee will be charged for members of the Terrace Bay Curling Club while all others will be charged at the rate of $1.00 per person. Deadline for entries in the Open Competition is Saturday, March 5th. Winning rinks will receive excellent prizes.

If time permits and ice is available a Ladies Bonspiel will also be staged.

All prizes and trophies will be presented at the Second Annual Curling Club Banquet which will be held at Hotel Terrace on Thursday, April 7th.
