LARGEST CIRCULATION IN TERRACE BAY

June 23, 1949

COVINGTON - ANDERSON WEDDING

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Friday afternoon June 17th at 4:00 p.m. in Terrace Bay Community Church when Rev. A. F. Lavender, united in marriage Mary Maude Covington and Warren Stanley Anderson.

Given in marriage by her father, W. W. Covington, the bride wore a floor length gown of white embossed organdie and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

She was attended by a bridesmaid, Miss Irma Waara who wore a pale blue gown of eyelet organdie and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

The bride's mother chose a chocolate brown gabardine suit with matching accessories and wore a corsage of Talisman roses.

The groom was attended by H. S. Craig as best man.

Music was provided by Mrs. T. S. Hodgkiss at the piano and Fred Soughton who sang "Because" and "Through the Years".

The church was beautifully decorated with white snapdragons, tall white tapers, and tamarack.

Following the ceremony, about 60 guests were entertained at a reception held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Covington, 42 Pine Crescent.

The bride and groom left Terrace Bay following the reception for an extended motor trip. They will reside in the vicinity of Coosa River, Alabama.

TERRACE BAY HARDBALL TEAM VICTORIOUS IN TWO MORE GAMES OVER SCHREIBER

During the hardball season,

Terrace Bay and Schreiber have met five times, with the local boys gaining victories in the last three encounters.

Last Saturday evening Schreiber lost no time in chalking up five runs in the first two innings off Hugh Chesley who was very liberal with passes, issuing four bases on balls. This coupled with two timely hits gave Schreiber a commanding lead. Morris Howe relieved Chesley on the mound however, and for the balance of the game held Schreiber to two runs.

Terrace Bay's big moment came in the sixth inning when they pushed enough runs across the home plate to win by a 10-7 count.

On Tuesday night in a closely contested match with Bill Borsum doing the hurling and Phil Stuart behind the plate, Terrace Bay came out on the long end of a close 4-3 victory.

The local team is rapidly rounding into shape and it is hoped that teams from both Marathon and Nipigon will be brought here for exhibition games in the near future. The next scheduled game will be on Sunday afternoon, June 26th at 2:00 p.m. at the local ball field against Schreiber.
