WEED CONTROL Much effort is being expended by many Terrace Bay residents in the beautifying of the Townsite by planting lawns and gardens.

Many visitors to the community have been quite impressed by this phase of the development. Much extra work will have to be done, however, by those with lawns and gardens unless an active campaign is waged against weeds which are growing wild in many parts of the townsite. Seeds from these weeds will start to spread soon and all townsite residents are urged to help with this problem by cutting down all weeds on their property as soon as possible.
