

THE ST. MARTIN'S LADIES GUILD

The St. Martin's Ladies Guild held it's monthly meeting on Wednesday, September 21st at the home of Mrs. H. Boudreau.

Boudreau.

Mrs. E. Cavanaugh, President was in the chair. The meeting was opened with a prayer by Re. Father J. Roenicke, after which the minutes of last meeting were read by the secretary, Miss Ann Wallie.

Plans were discussed for the bazaar that will be held on October 10th, and plans for the Halloween dance were also arranged.

At the close of the meeting a delicious lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. H. Boudreau, assisted by Mrs. Joe Kennedy and Miss Ann Wallie.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. Woodworth, 160 Birch Crescent on October 12th.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

(At this season it seems appropriate to reprint the following letter. The writer is nameless but he speaks for many fathers beside himself.)

Dear Friends:

My daughter, Mary, started to school this morning. As she walked off with the boy friend from across the street, a third-grader, she seemed so tiny and frail to be starting the long journey to education.

She looked quite cute the way her mother had her dressed in a little outfit she had been saving for this occasion, these many months. So eager was she for this venture that she could hardly take time to kiss me goodbye.

Tonight at the dinner table she was bursting with the news of the day. She's asleep now. As I tucked the covers around her she reached out and drew her rag doll, "Zinny", to her. I watched as a wistful smile played across her face and her red curls formed a flaming halo around her head.

Yes, she's safe in her bed tonight and my constant prayer is that she will return safely each night.

Will you help me, Mr. Motorist? - Please! You can, if you will keep your eye out for her and drive just a wee bit slower and be as careful as you can.

I can't be with her all the time, but I have talked to her about the dangers in crossing the street. I have asked her not to play in the streets.

She obeys me as well as can be expected of a tyke her size and age, but she's as agile as a chipmunk and when she gets excited in her play she darts thither and yon. I love her, and for all the world I want her to grow up to be a fine, strong, healthy Canadian girl.

You will then, won't you, be on the lookout for her - yes, and for all the hundreds of other little Canadian citizens-in-the-making?

Sincerely,

A DADDY.
