

"NIGHT IN VIENNA" ON 5TH CANADIAN TOUR It would be impossible for you to see a dozen operas in one night but you can hear the song-hits from many operas in one delightful evening - all sung in English by young Canadian singing stars.

This opportunity comes when the Basil Horsfall Singers present "A Night in Vienna" at the Recreation Hall on Thursday, November 3rd.

When the company ventured out two seasons ago, it was a purely speculatively venture to ascertain what response would be given to young Canadian singers - all of whom have played the principal roles in well-known operas. Clamorous demands for return engagements, insistent requests for the production from places that had heard about the show, resulted in a second and a longer tour.

And now - fifth time out - the company is playing from Dawson in the Yukon to Nova Scotia and still breaking records.

Patrons are advised to secure their seats early.

Tickets are available from the following: Hudson's Bay Office, Lumbers' Groceteria and Hotel Desk.
