BADMINTON NEWS Despite the bad storm last Wednesday night, the After-Badminton Social was quite a success. Monty Paget explained the Square Dance and called off for several sets to the accompaniment of music played by Don Anderson, Pat Flood and Joe Vienneau. The crowd also tried their skill at a schottise, minuet, and many more of the good, old-fashioned dances. All in all it was a lot of fun.

Coffee and doughnuts were served by members of the Club and all those present thought it was well worth the effort.

Do we want more of these social evenings? Please pass on your comments - favourable or otherwise to members of the Club and we will see what can be done in the future.

By the way, Badminton members, be sure to keep Saturday, March 25th open! That's the night Marathon and Schreiber are going to invade our courts and we want every member to turn out and help entertain these two Clubs. Marathon outdid themselves when they entertained us, now let's return the compliment and show them what Terrace Bay can do -- and at the same time we'll get in some good, stiff competition. The show has been cancelled for Saturday, March 25th, so Badminton will start sharp at 7:00 p.m. However, more about this in the next issue of the News. Just remember to keep that date open.
