THE FOLLOWING IS A LETTER RECEIVED FROM THE DISTRICT OFFICE OF THE CANADIAN RED CROSS SOCIETY

LongLac Pulp and Paper Company Limited,
Terrace Bay, Ontario.

Attention: Mr. E. L. Veitch

Dear Sir:

On behalf of the Port Arthur Red Cross Society and the Campaign Committee, I wish to acknowledge with sincere thanks the generous contributions to the 1950 Red Cross Campaign.

We would also like to express our appreciation to your employees who subscribed so generously, and to all members of your staff who gave their time and effort to make this campaign so successful.

This money will enable the Red Cross to carry on its peacetime program with the same efficiency and fervour as prevailed during the war years.

Yours very truly,

THE PORT ARTHUR RED CROSS SOCIETY,

D. R. Bustin,
Campaign Chairman.
