LARGEST CIRCULATION IN TERRACE BAY

May 25, 1950

RADIO RECEPTION The Improvement District Trustees have asked the Department of Transport to assist in locating radio interference. We are advised that with the installation of suppressors by the Telephone Company, interference from dialing will be overcome. In regard to other interference, a communication from the Inspector requests that the complainants note the time and duration of interference so that the Inspector can arrange to arrive when the noise is on. If it comes on at a definite time each day - this should also be noted.

Radio owners can co-operate by sending information on radio interference as suggested above, to the Clerk Treasurer, Terrace Bay, Ontario.

BASEBALL TO GET UNDER WAY Monday night's Baseball meeting saw a much better turnout when a goodly number of enthusiasts came out and amongst other things, elected their slate of officers for 1950. Phil Stuart is President, Jim "Curly" Hale, Vice-President; Harold "Mush" Marsh, Secretary-Treasurer; Dan Gillis, Junior Representative in charge of the young fellas, and Ed Pineault rounds out the group as Executive Member.

Enthusiasm was abundant and so practices have been scheduled for the balance of the week in order to get the "ole soup bones" limbered up for Sunday's Curtain-raiser. The gang from Structural have agreed to take on the Question Marks in a battle to the finish at the local diamond on Sunday. Game starts at 2:00 p.m.

One or two methods for raising funds were discussed and among them was a Stag Smoker set for Saturday, July 8th. The details of this and other schemes will appear in the News when they are completed.

KIWANIS KOOKS KLINK An event of unusual interest was the Kiwanis Tea and Bake Sale held in Hotel Terrace on Saturday afternoon, May 20th, in aid of the Manitoba Flood Relief Fund.

The event was under the able chairmanship of John Macdonald, the genial manager of the hotel, to whom must go much of the credit for the very satisfactory results of the afternoon.

Acting as hosts and ushers for the occasion were President Bert Laundry and Dr. Mike McCausland who discharged their duties with dignity and grace.

Presiding over the tea tables were two charming members of the club; Petite Ray Wood, wearing a gown of blue silk with hat and cigar to match was utterly bewitching as he or she poured the savoury nectar into cups as delicate as himself or herself? While Gordon Rowlandson, gowned in blue jersey silk with sweetheart neckline and pearls around his or her? lux-complexioned throat, was the cynosure of all eyes.

Equally charming were the waiters or waitresses; Ed. Cavanaugh, Jack Shaunessy, Monty Paget and Ken Harmon, who daintily attired in apron and cap served the guests with promptness and efficiency.

Jack Wade with his committee of baby watchers, armed with toys, arrowroot biscuits and knockout drops kept the little dears in perfect peace while their mothers enjoyed their tea.
