

Hearty congratulations to Mr. & Mrs. Jim Cumming and Mr. & Mrs. Jim Stewart on the arrival of new additions on Sat. July 29. The Cummings now have a daughter and the Stewarts have a little boy.

On Sunday the minister will conduct his last service previous to going on his vacation. The sermon subject will be "Things By Which Men Live".

The services on the remaining Sundays in August will be conducted by Rev. T. Roberts and Rev. G. Crawley, of Schreiber. Mr. Roberts will preach on August the 13th and 20th and Mr. Crawley will take the service and administer Holy Communion on August 27th.

It is hoped that during the vacation season all those who possibly can will attend the services.

LOCAL 665 TO SPONSOR DANCE

The Recreation Hall will be the setting for a Gala Dance to be sponsored by the Entertainment Committee of Local 665 on Friday, August 11th. The music for this occasion will be supplied by Joe Adamo's Orchestra and if we are to judge by the comments made after their initial showing at last Friday's dance, we are in for an another real pleasant evening.

All profits derived from this Dance will be used to purchase playing equipment to be placed at the swimming pool for use by the children of the Town-site.

If you happen to feel that your luck has been running out on you lately you might get in touch with Jimmy Corrigan. It seems that Jim and his good wife went out to do a bit of berry pickin' and came back with 35 Four Leaf Clovers instead.
