MOHAWK MASQUERADE BALL

By now you have all heard of the big Masquerade Ball being put on by the Mohawk Athletic Club on Friday, October 27th. SO we would just like to remind you that you have only 15-days to get your party together for the big event.

Len will also be in attendance with his camera to take pictures of the winners of the Costume Parade. Those not wishing to come in costume may come formal and will be given a mask at the door. All those wearing masks are requested to wear them until one o'clock when we can all unmask together. Soon after the unmasking, the Jive contest will commence. The winners of the contest will be presented with beautiful Trophies.

The Charleston, an old fashioned dance, which is coming back into style, will also be played during the evening for all those willing to try it.

Tickets may still be obtained from the Dance Committee and the girls from North and South Camps Snack Bars and also the Barber shop. It's a fun-packed programe, folks, so come out and join the fun!

Editor's Note:

The following poem was received in the mail this week from a former LongLac employee who was employed here during the construction days of 1947, who now resides in Winnipeg. Inasmuch as this poem was written by a former employee and is about Terrace Bay, we feel that it is worth printing:

"ODE TO TERRACE BAY"

Out in the wilds with the spruce and the pines,
To the North of Superior's shore,
Enterprise keeps marching abreast of the times,
Events cast their shadows before.

Where the deer and the bear they gambol around,
The birds singing cheery goodwill,
Deep vision and foresight with tact interbound,
The planning of townsite and mill.

From out of the wilds on completion will stand,
My words won't describe it enough,
A monument of Progress, the skill of Man's hand,

Like a jewel dug out of the rough.

From a small town to city in years yet to come,
Bright future ahead well defined,
The ambition behind you the course will be run,
Straight is the path so destined.

To the East looms Marathon, out for the "breaks",

In the West there is Red Rock too,
With spirit and courage you have what it takes,
The Pride of the three will be you.

W. Grieve.
