SHADES OF BROADWAY

Judging by the enthusiasm of the director and cast of the play that is being rehearsed almost nightly at the Recreation Hall, we are in for a swell treat when this play is presented to the public early in December. Who Knows? We may have some Garbos or Barrymores in our midst or even a DeMille as a director. At any rate, folks, this little group are sure taking their hobby seriously and their aim is to give us some top flight entertainment.

KIWANIS

The members of the Kiwanis Club of Terrace Bay had as their guest speaker at their dinner meeting on Tuesday evening last, Rev. Father Roenicke, parish priest of St. Martin's Church.

Father Roenicke in a very interesting and inspiring address challenged the members of the Club to live up to the ideals of Kiwanis, stressing the point that the greatest need of our time is the reformation of the individual, for without that there can be no reformation of institutions nor reformation of society.

The speaker was introduced by Ed Cavanaugh and at the conclusion of his address was thanked on behalf of the Club by Monty Paget and President Bert Laundry.

Last week, Mill Manager Don Porter was the lucky winner of the $5.00 prize money in the Safety Slogan Contest. Congratulations Don! By knowing the slogan, you have demonstrated to all once again that you are not too busy to concern yourself with details of our Accident Prevention program. Such an example should do much to inspire us all to continue to improve our accident experience.
