BADMINTON NEWS

At a recent meeting held in Marathon, it was decided to start a North Shore Badminton League. It will be comprised of three teams; from Marathon, Schreiber and Terrace Bay. The first meeting will be held in Marathon on Sunday, December 10th.

Our first social evening will be held on Saturday, December 2nd, so keep that date open. An invitation has been extended to the Marathon and Schreiber Clubs to come and join in on the badminton, dancing, and fun.

NOTICE: There will be no badminton on Nov. 23rd, 30th and December 7th.

The Men's and Ladies' Singles Ladder Tournament will start on Wednesday, November 15th. Any members wishing to enter, please submit their name to Clarence Buck or Gord. Paget.

RECREATION MEETING MONDAY

All residents are reminded once again that they are cordially invited to attend the monthly Recreation Meeting being held at 7:30 p.m. in Teen Town on Monday, November 20th.

ST. MARTIN'S MEN'S CLUB

The St. Martin's Men's Club wishes to extend a hearty thanks to the many patrons who attended the Stag last week. From all reports it would seem that an enjoyable time was had and certainly this annual event will be looked forward to again.

NEW BOOKS FOR THE LIBRARY

Florence Nightingale - by Cecil Woodham-Smith, a woman who writes the life story of one of the greatest women and can hardly fail to become the standard and permanent work on its subject. Miss Nightingale emerges as a woman of legendary courage and vision, as a figure at once heroic and warmly human.

In Search of England - H. V. Morton describes with characteristic humor his adventures on the highway and the queer characters he encounters during his travels.

In Search of Scotland - H. V. Morton. A fascinating piece of descriptive writing on a tour of Scotland.

Man Around the House - Norbert Engels. He mends old tables and builds new ones. Fixes roller skates, turns out ball bats. Converts radio cabinets, builds a picket fence. A happy, balanced man, and seldom idle!

The Home Owner's Guide to Better Lawns, Trees and Gardens - Ten outstanding experts give the answer to all your home gardening problems.
