St. MARTIN'S PARISH

Page 2

Sermon topic for Sunday, December 17th, 11:00 a.m. "Why Jesus Came".

There will not be any Sunday School in the morning.

7:00 p.m., SUNDAY SCHOOL WHITE GIFT SERVICE. Beautiful coloured pictures of the Nativity will be shown at this service. A sacred drama "The Angel's Song" will also be presented by scholars of the Sunday School. The children will present their white gifts to be sent to The Children's Aid Society in Fort William.

On December 24th, the regular morning service will be held at 11:00 a.m. At this service the sacrament of infant baptism will be administered. Any parents desiring to have their children baptized on this occasion may contact the minister at House #61.

There will not be the regular seven o'clock service on the evening of the 24th but at nine o'clock on Christmas Eve, Rev. W. G. Crawley of Schreiber will administer "Holy Communion" according to the rites of the Anglican Church. Every friend and member of the Community Church is cordially invited to attend all of these services.

A NOTE OF THANKS

To the general public of Terrace Bay we extend our sincere thanks for patronizing the stage play "Out of This World" in such large numbers. It is gratifying to experience such an enthusiastic response to entertainment of this nature and we can assure other groups with a similar idea in mind, that what experience we have gained in staging this presentation will be theirs for the asking.

Many thanks.

The Ladies of the Legion Auxiliary.
