ANNUAL GENERAL RECREATION MEETING

On Monday night, January 15th, at 8:00 p.m., the Annual General Recreation Meeting will be held in the Recreation Hall. All residents of the Community are cordially invited to attend this meeting which should be the clearing house for all beefs, ideas or criticisms that you may want to have aired.

As part of the evening's programme, some short interesting movies have been lined up as well as some refreshments to be served at the close of the proceedings. The Advisory Council for 1951 has been named along with the new Executive Committee which is made up as follows: Chairman - Harold Marsh; Vice-Chairman - Rune Ostling; Immediate Past Chairman - Bill Borsum; Treasurer - John Jeanneret; Secretary - Ossie Dalzell; Mrs. V. Vainikka, representing the ladies; Executive Members Bill Cavanaugh representing Local 665; Ray Blanchard representing the Community Services, Joe Wig representing LongLac Pulp and Paper Co. Ltd., Al Lindskoog representing Bowling.

These people will endeavour to set the pace for the Recreational needs of the Community, but can only do so with your co-operation. If they don't know what your wishes are, they can hardly be blamed if you are not being satisfied, so please come out to the General Meeting on Monday and let your thoughts be known.
