CONGRATULATIONS TO MARATHON

The Marathon Mill has just completed its first run of 100 consecutive safe days since it commenced operations in 1947. They are naturally thrilled with the experience just as we have been on a couple of occasions and we wish them the very best in their efforts to prevent injuries.

As accident prevention efforts are redoubled by other mills in this area, our own efforts will have to keep pace with the trend if we are to continue to hold our own in any kind of competition. More and more to-day people are appreciating the fact that preventing accidents pays real dividends.

All curling enthusiasts are reminded of the challenge games between rinks from Marathon and Terrace Bay to be held on Saturday evening, March 17th.

The 7 o'clock games will be held as per schedule but the games scheduled for 9 p.m., will be played Sunday afternoon or evening. All curlers please note.

In the Round Robin series just completed Ed Pineault's rink were again successful in winning out; a tie for 2nd exists between R. Ostling and T. Olsen, and for 4th between Paul Boudreau and G. Dodge. These play-offs will be held at a later date. Don't forget the games at 7 p.m. Saturday night.

Marathon vs Terrace Bay.

During the past week at the Curling Rink when the Seagram's Trophy was at stake Mrs. Earla Pugh skipped ~~right~~ through with Louise Farrow, Doris Lindskoog and Evelyn Knauff to finish on the top.

It is hoped that Seagrams representative, Mr. Lesser, of Sudbury will be in Terrace Bay for the curling banquet on April 13th to present the trophy and prizes.

Barbara Haughn with Anne Latour, Ev Garvin and Eleanor Pearson came through to win the Consolation.

Now that the Bonspeil is completed the ladies have gone back to complete the "Round Robin" to decide the winner of the Hudson's Bay Company Trophy.
