YOUTH ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE ORGANIZED

Last week, meetings were held to form a committee to organize, co-ordinate and direct activities for the youth of the townsite. The need for this committee has been apparent for quite some time. It will provide instruction and supervision for organized major group activities for all youths in the townsite both in public and high school, with the exception of such groups as the Cubs and Scouts and will endeavour to co-ordinate all activities to eliminate any overlapping.

At the first meeting, general plans were discussed and the following executive was elected. Joe Adamo, Chairman and delegate to the Recreation Committee; Al Stevens, Secretary Treasurer; Joe Wig, Ed Pineault and Al Lindskoog, Board Members. At a later meeting the executive agreed to concentrate on the following activities to start with and appointed the following chairmen.

Boys Athletics: Chairman - Jim Cumming, Assistants - Joe Adamo and Ed. Pineault. This group will organize and promote baseball, hockey, basketball, etc., for boys in all age groups.

Public School Girls: Chairman to be appointed. This group will organize and supervise a public school girls club along the lines of brownies, girl guides or something similar.

High School Girls: Chairman Doris Lindskoog. This group will organize a high school girls club along the lines of a Y.W.C.A. or something similar.

Mixed Swimming: Chairman Jack Wade. This group will promote swimming activities for all age groups.

Dancing: Chairman Ann Willisroft. This group will teach dancing for all ages.
