LIBRARY NEWS

The Public Library Board is pleased to announce that a 1950 set of the Encyclopaedia Britannica is now on the shelves. The index volume with its 500,000 entries makes the most elusive subject or places easy to find. The Britannica Book of the Year, a new volume every year, insures continuity of the 24-volume set purchased at this time.

"Is there any legend about that mountain?" asked a tourist of a native.

"Yep," was the reply. "Two lovers once went up the mountain and never came back again." "Is that so? And what happened to them?" the tourist asked breathlessly. "Went down t'other side."
