MEN'S LEAGUE WINDUP

pleasure of attending the "Stag of stags".

MIXED AND COMMERCIAL LEAGUES WIND-UP

Please note that the wind-up of the mixed and Commercial Leagues will be held on Friday, May 18th, commencing at 9 o'clock in the evening.

Owing to revision of plans, this "do" will be held in the Legion Hall, and not in the Recreation Hall as noted on the invitations.

Presentation of trophies and monies will take place at 10:15, and it would be appreciated if all those able to attend the wind-up would be on time for the ceremonies.

HUDSON'S BAY CAPTURES MAYFAIR TROPHY

Hudson's Bay Co. trundlers captained by J. Jessop came through in fine style to beat Dominion Catering bowlers captained by A. Roussel in a four game total series. (Dominion Catering were 4 to 1 favourites going into the series.) At the end of the first game, the Hudson Bay team had a 48 pin lead and never were headed throughout the roll-off series by Dominion Catering.

The final count for the Mayfair Competitors is Hudson's Bay Co. 3823 and Dominion Catering 3575.

In the consolation roll-off between the Imperial Bank and the Hotel Terrace, the Hotel came out the victors.

The final count - Hotel Terrace 3849 and the Imperial Bank 3527.

Honourable mention should be given to Clarence Buck of the Hotel Terrace team who bowled in superb style for a 1085 four game total or a 271.1 average per game which makes Clarence holding the alley record in this department. This kind of bowling is outstanding in any league anywhere.

The high lady of the night's roll-off goes to Doris Wheeler of the Dominion Catering quintet who was in fine form by spilling the wooden men to the tune of 836 and average of 209 for four games. Incidentally, Doris' average during the season's play was 156.

The Hudson's Bay team comprised of Capt. J. Jessop, B. Doerksen, B. Jessop, B. Haughn, S. Jakobson and D. Shaw.

The Dominion Catering - Captain A. Roussel, E. Jour, T. Moreau, D. Wheeler and E. Desroziere.

The Hotel Terrace winners of the consolation prize comprised of Captain J. Maurstad, M. Buzzie, H. Hebert, G. Clay, S. Stokho, A. Drexler and C. Buck.

The Imperial Bank team captained by Frank Madden comprised of D. McKay, J.

McLeod, E. Niemi, J. McColl, J. Shubaly and C. Lopuck.

LADIES LEAGUE WIND-UP

The tentative date of May 26th as noted in the last issue of the "News" will have to be changed due to previous booking of a dinner at Hotel Terrace. A definite date will be announced through your captain and in the subsequent issue of the News.

QUEEN OF THE BALL

Congratulations are in order to Miss Sue Lumbers who, during last Friday evening's May Ball, was chosen Queen of the May. The Judges evidently had a difficult task in making their final choice but that it was a most deserving one cannot be denied. Sue's prize turned out to be a very lovely Compact and will no doubt be cherished for many years to come. Our best compliments to you, Sue.
