

TERRACE BAY FIRE PLUG

baby
had mat-
to death - burns

An 18-months-old baby girl was burned to death last night in a fire which police said started while she was playing with matches. Brenda Astrum was found dead in a basement suite. "There were matches everywhere," police said. Brenda's sister, four-months-old Linda, was rescued by their mother, who returned home after the fire broke out.

CLEAN UP

awakened
by smoke
in
basement - flames

Choking smoke that seeped into the living room of his Arlington Ave. home woke Thomas Forget yesterday in time for him to flee from the burning building. Forget, a night watchman, was alone at the time. He said he woke up with smoke choking him and looked toward the front of his home where he saw flames shooting from the basement. As he was running out the rear door on an overheard called firemen. They blamed the fire on an overheated furnace and said the loss would exceed $1,000.

never forget.
you can be fired by fire

UP SWEEP UP

MARKSTAY, Ont. - A family of eleven was made homeless when their five-room, two-story frame home was destroyed by fire. Nothing was saved. Marksstay is 20 miles east of Sudbury. His wife and nine children escaped injury. The building was owned by Frank Garter, a settler located about seven miles north of here in Loughlin township. He was absent at work at Creighton mine.

PAINT UP UP
MAILS RED BOXES ARE FIRE IN FIRE

Firemen in west Toronto had a useless run last night when a newly-arrived mail box. Started when Dowling Ave. and Lake Shore Blvd., the man said he had been told by a mail box on street corners. In trying to get the red boxes to post his letter he tripped the alarm, fire men said. Box open to post his letter he tripped the alarm, fire-