

FORT WILLIAM MALE CHOIR

and this years' program will prove no exception to the long line of successes which this choir enjoys. Among the many wonderful numbers to be heard on Saturday night will be several Rogers and Hammerstein favourites including "It's A Grand Night for Singing" from State Fair, "June is Bustin' Out all Over" from Carousel, and "Oklahoma" from the play of the same name. Other numbers to be heard will be "Cheer Up Companions", "Music of the Sea", "Come Where My Love Lies Dreaming", and "If I But Knew".

"A HOWLING SUCCESS"

isn't a 'blue ribbon' winner, you won't go away empty handed.

Speaking of prizes, C. R. Strachan Jewellers of Fort William have donated a Baby Fork and Spoon Set; Ogilvie Baby Foods of Toronto have donated some of their Gerber Baby Food and through the courtesy of Mrs. A. Orlando of the Bayview Hardware, Sault Ste. Marie, a Baby Ben Alarm Clock has been made available. Last week's issue of the "News" printed an error regarding the donation of the Johnson & Johnson Ltd. of Montreal. A correction is in order and accordingly Johnson & Johnson Ltd. are donating two "Babyland Cases" which includes lotion, cream oil, powder, etc. for the baby. In addition, Canadian Connors Ltd. of Hamilton have donated a very liberal quantity of their famous line of Aylmer Baby Foods.

Mrs. J. Wig will be pouring tea in lieu of Mrs. R. J. Shemanski who is confined to hospital at the Lakehead.

The time and place again is 2:00 p.m. in the basement of St. Martin's Church this coming Saturday. Drop in and view the proceedings even if your pride and joy isn't entered. A delicious tea will be served throughout the judging for a 50 cent charge..
