LIBRARY NEWS

The fact that many of our readers must be reminded again to return all overdue library books incites the addition of words of advice to librarians of 1774, offered by an unknown person who apparently had strong feelings about his property.

"For him that stealeth a Book from this Library, let it change to a Serpent in his hand and rend him. Let him be struck with Palsy and all his Members blasted. Let him languish in Pain crying aloud for Mercy and let there be no surcease to his agony till he sink to Dissolution."

"Have in Mind the Counsel of Master Enoch Sneed (that most Worthy Librarian who says: It were better that no Person enter the Library (save the Librarian Himself) and that the Books be kept in Safety, than that one Book be lost, or others Misplac'ed."

"Let no Politician in your Library, nor no man who Talks overmuch," he commands. - Off the Record.

"What are your plans for your vacation?" one lady was heard to inquire of another.

"Well," replied the other, "thus far they are only tentative."

"How perfectly delightful!" rejoined the first. I'm sure you'll enjoy camping out more than anything."
