

KIWANIS CLUB NOTES

The Kiwanis Club of Terrace Bay held its second Annual Tea and Bake Sale in the lounge of the Hotel Terrace on Saturday afternoon, June 16th. The beautifully decorated tables were presided over by two of the most charming members of the Club, matronly, buxom Glennelda Lumbers and would-be streamlined Roberta Sheppardess. "Even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these."

Giving benediction to the affair was benign Granny Cavanaugh whom everyone was delighted to see looking so well after her illness in the hospital.

That the Club was not lacking in members accomplished in the art of culinary was plainly demonstrated by the tempting display of cakes and cookies on the sale table. Experienced judges were on hand to decide on the merits of the various concoctions and prizes were awarded to Willa Borsum and Freda Soughton.

Present during the afternoon was Mrs. Harry Goodfellow receiving donations to the Cancer fund.

Although the attendance was not as large as that of a year ago, all those attending and those participating report having had a good time.

Al McColl, President of the Kiwanis Club of Terrace Bay is representing the club at the 36th annual convention of Kiwanis International, being held from June 17th to 21st, in St. Louis, Missouri.

President Al is among the anticipated 10,000 Kiwanians and their families who will meet to elect international officers for the coming year, and to participate in panel conferences on various activities sponsored by Kiwanis, among which are youth, community and citizenship services.

Before leaving on his holidays during which he will attend the convention, Al said many internationally eminent speakers will address the convention. All addresses will be based on the organization's nine objectives of this year as well as Kiwanis International's 1951 administrative theme, "Freedom is Not Free".
