Jenkins was always trying to borrow money. One morning he tackled an acquaintance in the street before the latter had a chance to escape. "I say, old man," began Jenkins, "I'm in a terrible fix. I want some money badly, and I haven't the slightest idea where I'm going to get it."

"Glad to hear it my boy," replied the other, promptly. "I was afraid you might have an idea you could borrow it from me."
