KIWANIS NOTES

Sergeant Jim Cumming of the local 200th Anti-Aircraft Battery addressed the Kiwanis Club at their dinner meeting on July 17th at the Hotel Terrace. The subject was "Chemical, Atomical and Bacteriological Warfare" and the speaker stressed the necessity for civil defenses against such warfare in all communities, whether large or small. The talk was very educational and other organizations in the Community would do well to obtain Jim's services at one of their meetings.

AT THE MOVIES

Saturday Matinee, July 21, 1951 - 2:00 p.m.

"Watch the Birdie" with Red Skelton, Arlene Dahl and Ann Miller. It's not one, but three Red Skeltons in this new M-G-M comedy. Red is seen as Rusty, the hero; Pop, his zany father; and Grandpop, who has a way with the ladies. Red is an amateur photographer who in an effort to save Miss Dahl from a pair of villians, experiences one howling mishap after the other, climaxed by a wild chase in a two-story straddle truck.

Saturday Evening - July 21, 1951 - 7:30 p.m.

"RIGHT CROSS" starring June Allyson and Dick Powell. June Allyson, who scored one of her greatest hits as the heroine of THE STRATTON STORY, now comes to the screen in a great sports drama centering on a champion fighter. Dick Powell, as a sportswriter and Ricardo Montalban, playing the champ, are the men in June's life in this new hit from M-G-M.
