OIL STOVE EXPLOSION STARTS BLAZE IN WOODEN HOUSE BEACON, N.Y. - Four children were burned to death in a fire caused by an exploding oil stove in their home.

FIREMEN NEAR -- FIRE SMALL - COOKSVILLE - Several women left the Cooksville inn yesterday when an overflowing oil furnace started a small fire which went out by itself before firemen next door had the equipment out. Damage was small to the 150 year-old inn.

HAILEYBURY - Earl Penner, 52, former member of the Ontario Provincial police, died in hospital during the night of burns received yesterday when a stove exploded at his home at Timagami. The stove exploded when Penner poured coal oil on the fire. He walked a mile to the nearest neighbour for help. A friend said he was burned from his head to his feet.

FIRE PIPES CAUSED
FIRE AT 226 NORTH BRODIE STREET, FORT WILLIAM were blamed for a fire at 226 North Brodie Street, Fort William, home tenanted by George Kidder. Firemen were called at 11:40 p.m. Firemen used booster pumps to quench the blaze. Most of the damage, which was not estimated by Fire Chief E. H. Dean, was confined to the basement. Ho-said there would also be considerable smoke loss.
