AT THE MOVIES

Saturday Matinee, August 4, 1951 - 2:00 p.m.
"Nothing But Trouble" with Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy. It is nothing but laughter for moviegoers, as the two clowns, mingling in high society, manage, more by luck than merit, to foil a plot against a king in exile.
Saturday Evening, August 4, 1951 - 7:30 p.m.
"The Green Years" starring Charles Coburn, Tom Drake and Beverly Tyler. A faithful screen transcription of Cronin's famous novel telling of the struggle of a young boy brought up in "alien" surroundings by relatives of a different faith. Charles Coburn leading a large cast, gives a richly human and humorous performance.
