

SOFTBALL FINALS UNDERWAY

Engineering and Townsite are all evened up at one game apiece in their best-of-five series for the league title. Both of the games to date have been bitterly fought struggles and the remaining games should prove to be well worthwhile watching. It was hoped that we could have had a winner declared by the end of August, but due to unforeseen circumstances this has not been possible. The balance of the series will be resumed next week but the exact dates have not yet been set due to most of the players being involved in shut-down work in the Mill.

During the last day of the Christmas rush in a large department store, a frenzied clerk, overwhelmed by pushing women shoppers, was making out what she hoped would be the last sales check of the day.

As the customer gave her name and address, the clerk, pushing her hair up from her damp forehead, remarked: "It's a mad-house, isn't it?"

"No," the customer replied angrily. "It's a private home!"

THE NEXT CHANCE YOU TAKEMAY BE YOUR L A S T !BACKYARD FENCES

The attention of those tenants requesting the erection of backyard fences is again drawn to the fact that a charge of $1.50 per month will be added to the house rental to cover the cost of these fences. It is also pointed out that any charges arising out of repairs made necessary due to negligence on the tenant's part will also be charged to the tenant.

Little girl (on a transcontinental train): "Mama, what's the name of the last station we stopped at?"

Mother: "Don't bother me. Can't you see I'm reading. Why do you ask?"

Little girl: "Because brother got off there."
