

THE GUNNERS' COLUMN

Commencing on Thursday, September 20th, Sergeant Instructor Jim Cumming will be holding forth in the Armouries on the subject of Chemical and Atomic Warfare. Jim is a fully qualified instructor in this most important phase of modern warfare and can give a good account of both himself and his subject on the platform.

This course will continue for the next 8 weeks and any members of the unit or potential members desiring to take the course should be on hand this Thursday at 19:15 hours promptly at the Armouries.

On Tuesday, September 25th, there will be some films on the war in Korea made by the American Army Photography Unit, and the Battery will proceed out on the Jackfish road to do some firing drill under night conditions. The M.T. course will be on driving practice.

Parade time 19:15 hours at the armouries.

Recruits are welcome and anybody interested in joining is invited to come down and look the situation over. Information is given out free of charge.

HERE AND THERE

Visitors of the week, renewing acquaintances with all of those people they knew when they were in Terrace Bay a couple of years back are Ruth Bangartt, Kay McKeen, Ina Parker and Jim Nicholson.

Jimmy McCormack, the genial supervisor of snack bars, had a very unpleasant incident happen last Sunday when one of his young sons was hurt by a truck in Fort William. However, we are now pleased to report that the young lad is out of danger and is expected to recover nicely.

LIBRARY NEWS

Hours: Monday & Wednesday - 2 to 4 p.m.
Tuesday & Thursday - 7 to 9 p.m.

New Books:

THE BIG SHOW by Pierre Clostermann, D.F.C., translated from French by Olivier Berthoud. This diary of a World War II ace tells of the thrilling life of a pilot. It is written like an intelligence officer's report and, from its pages, are culled operations that include the entire repertoire of an R.A.F. fighter pilot lucky enough to survive four years of furious fighting.

NIGHTMARE IN MANHATTAN by Thomas Walsh. Magazine readers will know him for his brilliant short stories which have appeared in almost every popular periodical.

AN ISLAND SUMMER by Walter Magnes Teller. A warm, wise and entertaining chronicle of a happy family holiday on Martha's Vineyard.

Children's Books: Children six years and over may now become members of the Library. Following are the titles of some of the books: Cinderella; History Can Be Fun; Abitibi Adventure; Tales from Grimm; Aesop's Fables; Book of King Arthur; Secret Garden; Arabian Nights; Heidi; Pinnocchio; Robin Hood; Robinson Crusoe; Teen-age Sports Parade; Big Book of Animals Every Child Should Know; The Prince and the Pauper; Bambi; Teen-age Adventure Stories; The Big Thornton Burgess Storybook and others.

Mother snatching toddler who had just smashed a lamp: "That settles that. You're going to be an only child."

The truck driver lost control and ran his vehicle right into a kitchen where the lady of the house was laboring at an ironing board. Bewildered and embarrassed, he just blurted out: "Can you tell me the way to the Union depot?" And the lady said: "Straight past the sideboard and turn around the piano."

Before marriage a woman waits up for hours for her sweetheart to go home. After marriage she waits up for hours for him to come home.

Wife: "If you had it to do over again would you marry me, dear?"

Husband: "Of course, if I HAD to do it over again."
