

THE GUNNER'S COLUMN

In line with our policy of keeping the public informed about our activities, your correspondent is pleased to report that we have quite a programme line

Next Tuesday we commence to shoot on our small bore rifle range in the South Camp. If we can muster a strong enough team, our chances of entering the Dominion contests in Sharpshooting are very good.

Our .303 outdoor range is progressing along as well as can be expected in view of adverse weather conditions. It should be ready for use in approximately two or three weeks. (Subject to the weather.)

Our Chemical Instructor got off to a good start on his course on A.B.C. Warfare. If anyone wishes to know what that means, he can come down to the Armouries and find out!

In addition to the foregoing, we have been having films on the Korean War and other educational films, gun drill, night schemes and an excellent chance to get together.

BOWLING BITS

Your new Executive has been hard at work, planning your season's activities, however, they can't do very much if they haven't got your team entries in. In last week's "News", entry blanks were included and you were requested to have them completed and turned in by 5:00 p.m. tomorrow, Friday, October 5th. At the time of going to press, insufficient entries have been received to draw up a schedule for any of the Leagues. If we are going to get started on the date set (October 15th) we must have those entries turned in before the deadline. It remains the same, it has not been changed.

HALLOWE'EN DANCE

Friday, October 26th, will be a night of fun and gaiety for everyone at Terrace Bay, as that's when the ghosts and spooks of Hallowe'en will congregate at the Recreation Hall for an evening of dancing sponsored by the St. Martin's Club.

Present plans call for a Masquerade Dance with prizes for the best male and female costumes, together with balloons, noisemakers and decorations.

Complete details will be published in the following issues of the "News" but for now you are all urged to air out those costumes and be well prepared for this big event. You'll be sure to enjoy the entire evening.
