AT THE MOVIES

Saturday Matinee - October 20/51 - 2:00 p.m.

"The Sun Comes Up" starring Jeanette MacDonald, Lloyd Nolan, Claude Jarman, Jr., and Lassie. Filmed in Technicolor. The exciting adventures of a boy and his dog. Another great story by Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings, author of "The Yearling".

Saturday Evening - October 20/51 - 7:30 p.m.

"Vengeance Valley" in Technicolor starring Burt Lancaster, Robert Walker and Joanne Dru in M.G.M.'s biggest outdoor drama! The blazing story of a woman wronged and the men who rode seeking vengeance. Here's the powerful saga of the open spaces you've been waiting for. Straight from Luke Short's thrilling novel and Saturday Evening Post serial.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The breaking of insulators on power lines endangers the lives of people and can cripple the power supply to cities, homes, factories and farms, possibly causing employment lay-offs and financial loss to all concerned.

We feel most people understanding this fact, will co-operate fully.

The few who will not co-operate, and who break insulators wilfully, leave themselves subject to prosecution under Criminal Code. (H. E. P. C. of Ontario.)
