

LIBRARY NEWS:

Hours: Monday & Wednesday - 2 to 4 p.m.
 Tuesday & Thursday - 7 to 9 p.m.

Once again we are indebted to Joe Butler for his thoughtfulness and generosity. Listed below are some of the very fine books donated by Joe to the Library.

"The Sign of Jonah" - Nancy Hale - The hundreds of thousands of readers who enjoyed "The Prodigal Women" will want to read Nancy Hale's latest novel.

"The Young Emperor" - Robert Payne - A panoramic backdrop of sumptuous splendor frames a story of adventure, suspense and intrigue set in the India of the 17th century.

"Joy Street" - Frances Parkinson Keyes. Latest novel by the writer of "River Road", "Dinner of Antoine's" etc.

"Shadow on the Hearth" - Judith Merril. A tense, prophetic novel of one woman's world - after the Bomb falls!

"Jubel's Children" - Lenard Kaufman. The age-old problem of the responsibilities of children toward their parents is the theme of Mr. Kaufman's third novel.

"Kentucky Stand" - Jere Wheelwright - A stirring novel of the Bluegrass Country in the days of Daniel Boone.

"Star Money" - Kathleen Winsor - A merciless picture of Shireen Delaney, what she wanted, how she got it, and what it did to her.

"Another Pamela" - Upton Sinclair - An innocent's view of a crazy world, centering in an odd and fascinating menage in California.

"World So Wide" - Sinclair Lewis - This, his 22nd novel, was completed shortly before his death.

"The Left Hand of God" - Wm. E. Barrett. An exciting story of thrilling action in China, and of the strange doors which open when a man seeks God.

"My Heart in Hiding" - Lois Edwards - About an American girl who thought love died with her English husband, until she became the gambit in a woman's desperate bid for happiness.

FLASH!!!

Several moose have been encountered within the last week or two, in the vicinity of Terrace Bay. But the one that takes the cake is the one with the red flag tied to its horns that chased our Garage Mechanic H. Hall. The moose apparently wanted to be friendly and its not too hard to imagine why. Stop pushing, Tony!
