

TERRACE BAY.

NEWS

Volume 6, No. 52

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN TERRACE BAY

December 27, 1951.

HAPPY
NEW YEAR
TO ALL

NEW YEAR'S FROLIC

Plans are now complete for the social event of the season!! This will be the biggest and best New Year's dance in the life of our community. Admission is $3.00 per couple by reservation only and reservations must be picked up by December 28th. Music will be supplied by the Northern Knights and dancing will be from 11:00 p.m. until ?. Hats and noisemakers will be provided. Make up your party now. There are a few reservations still open and we don't want anyone to miss the celebration. Refreshments will be sold at the usual Cabaret rates.

COME EARLY! STAY LATE! HAVE FUN!
AT THE RECREATION HALL, DECEMBER 31ST.

o-o-o

HOCKEY HIGHLIGHTS

In Marathon on Sunday last the 1951-52 edition of the Terrace Bay Rockets got off to a fine start, and really gave the Marathon Mercurys a run for their money. Our boys were on the short end of a 6-4 score when the final siren sounded, but had been coming fast in the 3rd period when they tallied three times without a reply from the Mercurys. This good effort against a fast and big team omens well for the future of the
(cont. on page 4)

THE "KIDS" COME HOME FOR CHRISTMAS

Home to visit their respective parents over Christmas were the following teen-agers: Anita Duncan from Port Arthur General Hospital.

Marielle Leblanc from Congregation N. D. des Missions, Elie, Manitoba.

Sue Lumbers from Angus Business College, Winnipeg.

Jane Porter from Wayland Academy, Beaver Dam, Wis.

Louise Farrow from Fort William Collegiate, Fort William.

Bonita Smith from Port Arthur (Bonita has recently accepted a position with the News-Chronicle as teletype operator.)

o-o-o

CHRISTMAS SEASON VISITORS TO TERRACE BAY HAVE INCLUDED:

Flt.-Cadet Donald S. Miller of R.M.C., Kingston, and Mike Miller of Resource, Sask., visiting with Mr. & Mrs. Jack Wellings.

Mr. & Mrs. W. A. Ollen-Bittle of North Bay visiting at their son's home - Mr. & Mrs. Don Ollen-Bittle.

Emerson Lavender of Huntsville, visiting with his father, Rev. A. F. Lavender.

Mr. & Mrs. James Coe of Sault Ste. Marie visiting with Mr. & Mrs. Harry Coe and family.
(cont. on page 4)